

Rock View Lodge Bird List

Bird Lovers

"The river boat trip was an outstanding experience. Super birding in the forest. We'll be back!"

Brian and Dee Keating (Civilised Adventures of Calgary Zoo)

Rock View has become a favourite location for bird watchers from North America and Europe. Exciting bird lists have been prepared for the villages of Annai and Surama as well as for the Canopy Walkway and the Iwokrama Field Station and the Iwokrama rainforest reserve. Visitors can see for themselves how the distribution of birds varies from savannah to mountain, river and rainforest. Enthusiasts will be able to have the thrill of being able to add to these lists for future visitors and bird lovers. More recently the Moura road has shown great promise due to its interesting range of habitats.

Here is a list of bird species observed for Annai (savannah, mountains and river), Surama (savannah, mountains, river and rainforest) and the Iwokrama rainforest also known as the International Iwokrama Rainforest Programme for Research and Development with mountains, rivers and mainly rainforest. These lists are never complete as new species are being added to from time to time. Through the invaluable USAID programme to promote the birding potential of Guyana we are now able to offer birders these updated bird lists close to Rock View in this composite listing below.

Notes of Appreciation

Gratitude for the above list must be given in part to the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia with special mention to David Agro, Sally Conyne, Robert Ridgely and Bret Whitney as well as Davis Finch and Travis MacClendon of Wings Inc. and Daniel and Bradford Allicock of the village of Surama.

Recent updates on Rock View Lodge and the Panorama Nature Trail on the Mountain of the Sacred Table were also kindly prepared by Richard Cruise of Birdwatching Breaks and Colin Crooke of Naturetrek in March and April 2004

Appreciation is also given to Nick Athanas of Tropical Birding for revising and updating the list in December 2006.

Special thanks must now be given to Chris Collins and the USAID programme through the Guyana Sustainable Tourism Initiative (GSTI) and coordinated by the wonderful hand of Judy Karwacki for Chris' recent and very thorough work in the North Rupununi to identify more birds and provide individual lists for all locations covered in this composite listing.

The combining of the six bird lists into one was compiled at The Rock View Lodge, Annai with the assistance of Jorge. Edwards and Hendricks Daneils
